

LAKE NORMAN MEDIA GROUP PRESENTS

THE 2021
READER'S CHOICE

NORMY AWARD WINNERS & FINALISTS

AND THE 2021 NORMY GOES TO ...

Message from the publisher

Last year when I wrote the introduction letter for the Normy Awards edition, it pained me to inform the community that we would not be hosting our highly anticipated annual event due to COVID-19. I was sure that this would be a one-time occurrence and that we would be back to normal for 2021. Sadly, this was not to be the case. With the delta variant fueling another wave of infections, we decided to cancel the victory party again this year.

But that didn't stop us from moving forward with the Normy Awards themselves, nor did it prevent the tremendous response from readers and advertisers. It goes without saying that we could not carry on this local tradition without their extraordinary support. We truly appreciate the input we received, which enabled us to increase our categories from 93 to 116. Also, for the first time, voting well exceeded 14,000, which again is a great testimony to how significant the Normy Awards are to our community.

I want to personally thank the staff of Lake Norman Media Group for their hard work and dedication required to make this such a memorable experience for all those involved.

– Leslie Hunter Kahana, Publisher/CEO

Best Golf Course

MOORESVILLE GOLF CLUB

205 Golf Course Dr., Mooresville
704-663-2539
moorevillegolfclub.com

In a region rich in first-rate golf venues, the current version of the Mooresville Golf Club has garnered high praise. The original nine holes of what was the Mooresville Mills course were created by renowned designer Donald Ross in 1948. In the 1970s, the town acquired the facility and soon after added the back nine. In 2014, Mooresville residents approved a bond package for an extensive makeover and two years later the renovated course opened to rave reviews. The public course now features an attractive and challenging layout and a back nine with a rare mix of three par 3s, three par 4s and three par 5s. A driving range and practice areas are also amenities surrounding a new 17,000-square-foot clubhouse that includes a pro shop, snack bar and the On The Nines restaurant.

Healthy fast food is a new and evolving field, with CAVA among the trendsetters. Starting from a single restaurant in Maryland, the chain now has 80 dining locations across 15 states along with a line of nationally available dips and spreads. Customer-created healthy entrees are CAVA's calling card. Guests select a "base" of rice, salad, pita bread or something similar and can then add dips, spreads, proteins (options that include grilled chicken, lamb meatballs and roasted sweet potatoes) and more vegetables. The CAVA approach emphasizes an absence of additives and preservatives and a menu stocked with low sodium, low calorie and low fat foods.

JAMES FUNERAL HOME

10520 Arahova Drive, Huntersville
704-584-9004
jamesfuneralhomelkn.com

James Funeral Home continues to earn industry accolades. Owned by Huntersville native Sam James since 2010, the company was named Small Business of the Year by the Lake Norman Chamber of Commerce in June and it takes home yet another Normy Award. James serves families throughout the north Mecklenburg region, also owning the Northlake Memorial Gardens, and honors the lives of those who have called this community home. In March, James was part of a burial of a Huntersville man at Arlington National Cemetery, and the hearse was the same used for President George H.W. Bush in 2018.

NORTH HARBOR CLUB

There isn't much Lake Norman shoreline in Davidson west of the interstate, but North Harbor Club takes full advantage of its slice of paradise. The restaurant serves up a healthy variety of seafood, from lobster chowder to pan-seared scallops, but also gets into the "turf" scene with Korean street tacos and filet mignon. Diners can eat in the airy interior, but outdoors there is ample space to unwind from the work day or celebrate with friends with their hand-crafted cocktails while overlooking the lake. Boaters can even pull up to dock for dine-in or takeout.

lknortho.com

There may be a new name, but the lake community still raves over the service of Lake Norman Orthodontics, formerly Hill Orthodontics. Drs. Brett Hill and Anne Marie Payne offer traditional and innovative braces like Invisalign for both youth and adults. The website offers helpful tips for maintaining teeth, including foods to avoid, with braces. Clients note the genuine care shown for patients and the "effective and efficient" approach.

SAKS ORTHODONTICS

130 Argus Lane, Mooresville

704-799-0399

Best Summer Camp

HUNTERSVILLE PARKS AND RECREATION

105 Gilead Road., Suite 3, Huntersville
704-766-2220
huntersville.org

Three adventure camps are offered through Huntersville Parks & Recreation for kids in eighth grade or lower where campers learn sportsmanship, positive self-esteem and respect for others through team-building exercises. At the end of each week, campers go on field trips to entertainment destinations like Frankie's Fun Park, Defy Gravity, Zootastic Park, Cliffhangers and Carowinds. Soccer camps sponsored by the Charlotte Independence, and volleyball camps for a variety of age groups are also offered.

DUCKWORTH'S

16609 Statesville Road, Huntersville, 704-237-4387
huntersville.duckworths.com
560 River Hwy., Mooresville, 704-799-2881
mooresville.duckworths.com

In 2004, Rob Duckworth opened his first restaurant in Mooresville after a trip to Philadelphia, where his family ate cheesesteaks for every meal in an attempt to gauge what was done in the cheesesteak capital and bring it back down South. The eatery has since transformed into a small Charlotte region chain known for its vast beer selection and non-pretentious menu items, from steaks and ribs to pizza and wings. The restaurants also are lined with high-definition TVs with all the major sports packages, which makes it the perfect spot to watch your team play.
